

Seven Deadly Sins Executives Commit When Dealing With Their Employees: A Legal Perspective

Presented by ADP Resource and Summit Financial Group

Executives are busy people. Often the decisions they make or don't make can have legal ramifications that can come back to haunt them.

In this informative presentation, Brandee Todd, of Chamblee & Ryan, P.C., shares the Seven Deadly Sins Executives Commit When Dealing with Their Employees. Brandee provides a common sense overview of the important legal and HR considerations that can greatly impact their business. Key “sins” that are covered include:

1. Unemployment Liability: From Hire to Fire
2. Mistakes in Policy Adoption and Employee Handbooks
3. Not Effectively Training Managers, Supervisors and Employees
4. Undocumented Employees
5. Misclassification of Employees
6. Harmful Content in Personnel Files
7. Non-compliance in Your Employee Benefit Program

This is a FREE educational seminar and continental breakfast & refreshments will be provided to all attendees.

Date: September 23, 2008

Time: 8:30 AM – 10:30 AM
(Registration begins at 8 AM)

Location:

Crowne Plaza Dallas (Near the Galleria)
14315 Midway Road
Addison, TX 75001

972-980-8877

Space is Limited – Register by 9/18

Online at: www.myhrseminars.com/dallas.html

Phone: 214.678.2452

Email: Andrew_Wallace@adp.com

About the Speaker: Brandee L. Todd is a Shareholder with the Dallas law firm Chamblee & Ryan, P.C. She received her law degree from Texas Tech University and has been practicing law for 11 years. Her practice focuses on representing and counseling employers regarding HR issues, from representing them in litigation to advising employers how to avoid lawsuits. She was named a Rising Star by Texas Monthly in 2008.